

FALCON FLYER

FIRELANDS HIGH SCHOOL

THANK YOU MRS. JOHNSTON

MRS. TRACI JOHNSTON - As everyone knows, FHS lost math teacher Traci Johnston to breast cancer on Friday, September 15th. Mrs. Johnston had just completed her 20th year as a teacher at Firelands, and had a major positive impact on many students and staff at FHS. Her outstanding work in the classroom, and with many students in a one-on-one basis, helped them achieve success in mathematics. Mrs. Johnston was a leader in the building in helping students receive instruction and achieve succeed in reteaching the mathematics subject area. Mrs. Johnston's daughter put it best at her funeral when she said, "My mom was a lighthouse for many people." That statement was a perfect reflection on Mrs. Johnston, she was a shining light of FHS. Thank you Mrs. Johnston for all you did at FHS, you will be missed, but definitely not forgotten.

Mrs. Tawil and six young ladies chalked messages of hope outside FHS in honor of Mrs. Johnston. Thank you to Alex, Bailey, Gypsey, Kaitlin, Carley, and Savannah, for your thoughtful tribute.

HONORING MRS. JOHNSTON - There have been several different ways students and staff have honored Mrs. Johnston. Staff t-shirts, the wall of remembrance in the main hallway, the Art Society honoring Mrs. Johnston with Chalk Decorations in front of the high school, the Football team wearing pink ribbon stickers on their helmets, and the ribbons put around the school by Mrs. Tawil, many people are showing how much Mrs. Johnston was loved and will be missed. Finally, an event surrounding the Firelands-Edison basketball game on December 5th has been mentioned as a way to raise money for the family and to fight this terrible disease. More information will be forthcoming as the date becomes closer.
